

THE PARISH OF KIRKBY MALHAMDALE

by John William Morkill (originally published 1933)

In aid of the St Michael the Archangel, Kirkby Malham, Restoration Campaign, a limited, second edition of this very scarce local history of Kirkby Malhamdale is to be published by subscription. The whole edition is limited to only 250 numbered copies and will be printed by Smith Settle of Otley who specialise in high quality book reproductions and craft bindings.

The first 100 subscribers could have their names inscribed in the edition, and also had a choice of 3 bindings:

- Cloth covered boards, as the original including a reproduction of the original dust jacket which is extremely rare.
- Half bound in goatskin leather with a clear dust jacket.
- Full goatskin leather binding with a clear dust jacket.

The subscription list has now closed but you can still buy a numbered copy of the limited facsimile edition, but availability is limited to the library cloth binding.

The publication is now proceeding as sufficient advance subscriptions have been received, and the anticipated availability of the reprint is now March 2005

Send your completed order form (overleaf) and remittance to the address provided, and please support the Church Restoration Campaign by 'spreading the word' to all those you think may be interested
